In celebration of National Youth Art Month during the month of March, the Portland Museum of Art, in collaboration with the Maine Art Education Association (MAEA), has organized an exhibition of artwork created by Maine art students. This year celebrates the 26th anniversary of Youth Art Month Exhibitions in Maine, and the 12th annual exhibition at the Museum. The Museum's exhibition will showcase more than 100 works of art by students throughout the state, from elementary school through high school. The 2010 Youth Art Month exhibition will be on view at the Portland Museum of Art from Saturday, February 27 through Sunday, April 4, 2010. An exhibition celebration will be held at the Museum on Saturday, March 6, from 5:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. Admission is free to the public and refreshments will be served. K-5 certificates at 5:30 and 6-12 certificates at 6:30 p.m.
