Mandatory Writing Prompts
1st/4th Quarters

K (narrative)

Tell me about something you like to do with your family. (2nd & 4th Quarters)

1 (narrative)

Some days are really great. A great day can happen anywhere or anytime.

Write about a great day.

2 (narrative)

Think about the things you like to do. Write about a time you did something special.

3 (narrative)

What if... You were less than an inch tall? How did you become so small?

Think about the advantages of being less than an inch tall!

Write the tale of your life as a really small person. Include all the details about how you became so small, the feelings you experienced, and how you returned to your normal size.

4 (expository)

If you could visit any place in the world, where would you go? Everyone has thought about trips they might take and places they would like to visit. Write a paper telling where you would go if you could go anywhere in the world. Write at least three reasons why you would like to visit this place. Remember to use specific details to support and explain your reasons.

5 (expository)

Think of a favorite sport or activity that you enjoy playing or watching.

Write an essay that explains why it is your favorite sport or activity. Include at least three reasons in your paper that explain why this is your favorite. Be sure to use specific details to support each of your reasons.

6 (persuasive)

Many famous people, both real and fictional, have been honored by having their face on postage stamps. Choose a real or fictional person who you feel deserves this honor. Write a paper that would persuade others your choice is good.
