

Feb. 8, 2008

Dear Parents and Guardians,

We've certainly had a lot of snow lately! We're still on target for the 100th day of school to fall on Tuesday, Feb. 12th. Just a reminder to have your child bring in their labeled 100 objects in a container or ziplock bag by Monday or Tuesday of next week. Also, Valentine's Day is on Thursday of next week. I've written a note to a few parents asking to bring in an item for our icecream sundae celebration on that day. Please let me know if you are unable to donate. Thank you! Last week I sent home a list of all the names of the children in my class. Your child can bring in their Valentine cards any day up to Thursday next week.

Thank you for your cooperation!

This week we learned a few facts about the Chinese New Year! We listened to stories, looked at the world map, tried counting to 5 in Chinese and made a dragon puzzle out of paper. Gung Hay Fat Choy!

I hope you all have a wonderful weekend!
Keep reading!

Sincerely,
Carolyn Wentworth